6th March - 2nd April

Pick a starter and a main every week. Choose two desserts before 2nd April

Starter:

Practice telling the time with your parents. Can you tell the time to the nearest minute?

Learn how many days there are in each month. Do you know the rhyme?

Practice your times tables using the time tables game on the website.

Find ten things to measure.

Practice your Roman Numerals. Can you write out all of the Roman Numerals to 100?

Main:

Imagine that you are one of the characters in the Montague and Capulet fight! Write a letter to your enemy explaining why you were right!

Write your own modern day version of Romeo and Juliet story.

Write your own script!

Write a diary for one of Henry VIII wives.

Write a newspaper article about Anne Boleyn's heading.

Challenge! Write an obituary for Jane Seymour.

Dessert:

Make a wanted poster for a Tudor Criminal. Make sure to say what the crime was and what the punishment will be!

Make a model of the Globe Theatre.

Research and create your own Tudor recipe.

Make a realistic and life size Tudor dining set for the rich or poor. Create your own front page of a newspaper.

Make a top trumps card with lots of information about Romeo and Juliet characters on it!

Make sure you are enjoying your reading book every day! Don't forget, we will be checking your reading records to see who our star readers are!
